

SUSPICIOUS TUBE BRINGS CALL FOR FEDERAL SLEUTH

the former bank president's wife, came to Atlanta. She took up her residence with her son. A few weeks later reports came to Atlanta on a visit. He left again for Buena Vista during the latter part of September, remained there but a few days, it is alleged, and then took his departure for parts unknown.

or Atlanta 423.

or Atlanta 423.

COULD YOU BLAME VIVIAN FOR LAUGHING?

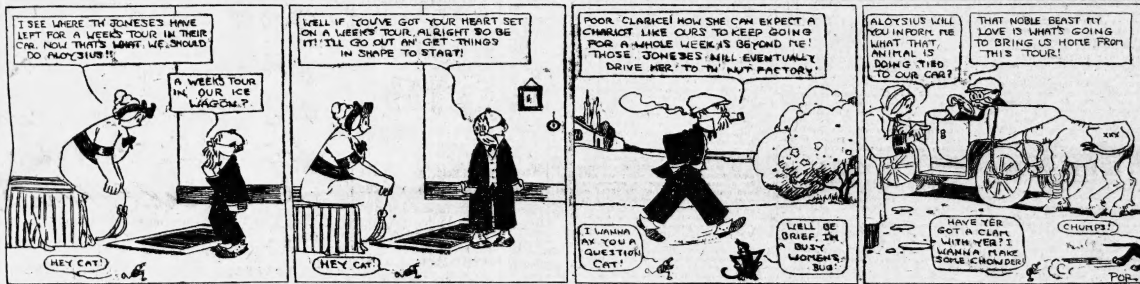

IT HAPPENS EVERY DAY

BY METZGAR

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONESES

---BY POP

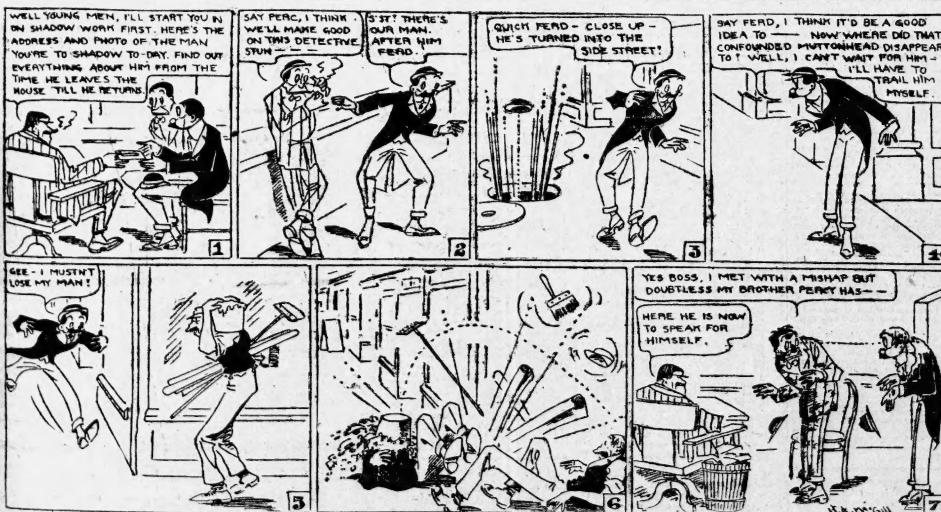

The Adventures Of Johnny Mouse

PERCY AND FERDIE

---BY M'GILL

Our Precise Artist

A Wail From French Jurymen

(London Chronicle.)
In France, as well as in England, jurymen have their grievances. The latest can easily be imagined. The French minister of justice has ordered an address signed by citizens living on the Paris jury lists, protesting against the long sittings of the courts where they have to sit. "There were not that 10-15 of us looking at a judging jury, some of them and other parties as a suit-they turn their eyes down the walls, nothing but so that they can make the game. In order to relieve this deadly monotony, there has been a point of French jurymen, "Justice in France" of Paris, may be long in each court."

If you don't want what you have, or haven't what you want, use The Journal's Want Ads

President of State Federation

PURE GRAYNESS BE AVERTED

—

Turns gray because it hasty, due to sickness, and accientary color. To prevent they begin to turn white enlarge the skin. To cause it to whiten more if left alone.

—

and only satisfactory treatment pure grayness is a pure, restorative, such as Moha-— This restorative is preparatory laboratory, a scientifically guarantee it to be non-is not to reach orange color, but is to restore faded to its natural color and its tone effect makes it lustrous and beautiful.

may half stand in your way social or business world. s of others are using this orative with best results.
d it for over a quarter of thout even one complaint t is a pure, beneficial res-cannot harm you. For n and dark brown and
At druggists and toilet ments, 75c; by parcel post, the name of your druggist supply you, and we will the sample of Robotine and Cold Cream of Bessa.
macay, Atlanta, Ga.—(adv.)

oned es $4.95

ned to buy at ent of new conly falling close strip of black e idea?

ashed and run
each one more rival these in $6.50, $7.50 and

Silk own

CO.

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
51 and 53 Whitehall Street

so it will not be longer suffer the jibes and sneers for there is no exaggeration

LIVERPOOL SPOT COTTON
DEMAND LARGE THURSDAY

Spots 15 Points Higher—Sales
15,000 Bales—Futures 2 to 7 1-2 Points Up

	Open	High	Low	Close	Settle
Jan-Feb	7.08	7.05	7.08	7.05	7.05
Feb-Mar	7.06 1/2	7.07 1/2	7.08 1/2	7.07 1/2	7.07 1/2
Mar-Apr	7.08	7.08 1/2	7.09	7.08	7.08
Apr-May	7.08 1/2	7.09	7.09 1/2	7.09	7.09
May-June	7.08 1/2	7.07	7.09	7.08	7.08
June-July	7.07	7.05	7.08	7.05	7.05
July-Aug	7.04	7.07	7.02 1/2	7.04	7.04
Aug-Sep	7.04 1/2	7.05 1/2	7.05 1/2	7.05 1/2	7.05 1/2
Sept-Oct	7.18	7.22	7.21	7.21	7.21

Time:	Jun. Feb.	Mar. April	May June	Oct. Nov.
1:17	7.05	7.08	7.08	7.08
1:30	7.00	7.00	7.00	7.00
1:47	7.07	7.07	7.07	7.07
1:50	7.00	7.00	7.00	7.00
2:00	7.08	7.08	7.08	7.08
2:08	7.00	7.00	7.00	7.00
2:11	7.07	7.07	7.07	7.07
2:18	7.07	7.07	7.07	7.07
2:28	7.08	7.08	7.08	7.08

2-01		7.00	7.00
2-02	7.07
2-03	7.06
2-04				7.19
2-05			7.07
2-06		7.09
2-07				7.14
2-08				7.13
2-09				7.13
2-10				7.13
2-11				7.13
2-12				7.13
2-13				7.13
2-14				7.13
2-15				7.13
2-16				7.13
2-17				7.13
2-18				7.13
2-19				7.13
2-20				7.13
2-21				7.13
2-22				7.13
2-23				7.13
2-24				7.13
2-25				7.13
2-26				7.13
2-27				7.13
2-28				7.13
2-29				7.13
2-30				7.13
2-31				7.13
2-32				7.13
2-33				7.13
2-34				7.13
2-35				7.13
2-36				7.13
2-37				7.13
2-38				7.13
2-39				7.13
2-40				7.13
2-41				7.13
2-42				7.13
2-43				7.13
2-44				7.13
2-45				7.13
2-46				7.13
2-47				7.13
2-48				7.13
2-49				7.13
2-50				7.13
2-51				7.13
2-52				7.13
2-53				7.13
2-54				7.13
2-55				7.13
2-56				7.13
2-57				7.13
2-58				7.13
2-59				7.13
2-60				7.13
2-61				7.13
2-62				7.13
2-63				7.13
2-64				7.13
2-65				7.13
2-66				7.13
2-67				7.13
2-68				7.13
2-69				7.13
2-70				7.13
2-71				7.13
2-72				7.13
2-73				7.13
2-74				7.13
2-75				7.13
2-76				7.13
2-77				7.13
2-78				7.13
2-79				7.13
2-80				7.13
2-81				7.13
2-82				7.13
2-83				7.13
2-84				7.13
2-85				7.13
2-86				7.13
2-87				7.13
2-88				7.13
2-89				7.13
2-90				7.13
2-91				7.13
2-92				7.13
2-93				7.13
2-94				7.13
2-95				7.13
2-96				7.13
2-97				7.13
2-9

19.4; 160; fresh made, white; w. 14.2; 160; fresh, undergrades, 11.5; 160; state skins, fresh specials, 11.4; 124; fresh, state skins, 10.5; 160; fresh, 5.40; fresh, lady defective. 1.4; 13.14.

Eggs strong; receipts 14,500 cases. Sta. Penn. and nearby, henney white, as to quality and size, 40.44c; state, Penn., and nearby, white, as to quality and size, 21.00c; gathered, 19.44c; state, 21.00c; henney, 19.44c; gathered, brown, 22.00c; colors, 22.00c; fresh gathered, extras, 22.00c; extra firsts, 31.00c; firsts, 28.00c; second, 27.00c; thirds, 10.00c; fresh gathered, state, 21.00c.

checks, good to choice, dry or less, 10¢; live grades, per case, $2.00-1.50; turkeys on stick marks, fancy, 25¢; 25¢; fish, 10¢;
eggs, 10¢; chickens, 10¢; ducks, 10¢.

KANSAS CITY BUTTER, EGGS AND POULTRY
(By Associated Press.)

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 18.—Butter, 16¢; pooultry unchanged.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET
(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Live hogs changed.
Eggs unchanged; receipts 6,587 cases.
Poultry—Dressed, 10¢; chickens, 10¢;
ducks, 10¢; Wisconsin, 10¢; Michigan, 10¢.

Poultry higher; springs, 1¢; fowls, 1¢.

GRIFFIN VOTERS ELECT BOARD OF EDUCATION

GRIFPIN, Ga., Sept. 18.—For the first time in the history of Griffin the board of education was elected by the people yesterday, by virtue of the fact of the last legislature. There was no opposition to the ticket elected and a very small vote was polled. Those elected were D. F. Patterson & H. W. Benson, T. J. Brooks, E. F. Carlisle, W. E. H. Searcy, Jr., Robert Wheaton, J. F. Persons and Dr. M. F. Carson.

A Little Essay on the Titles and Kinds of Bonds Offered to the Man Who Considers the Investment Banks'.

BY JOHN M. OSKINON.

An excellent definition of the bond which is offered to the average investor is this:

It is a promise to pay, given under seal, and secured by mortgage on property.

Best of all such bonds or promises to pay are those called first mortgage bonds. The promises represented by them were made first, and they would be paid first in the event that the corporation making them got into trouble.

Second mortgage bonds represent a valid claim on the property, but only after the claims of the first mortgage bondholders are satisfied.

General mortgage bonds usually represent promises to pay backed by property, portions of which have already been pledged to secure previous loans. They may or may not constitute first liens on portions of the property. It is the buyer's duty to find out about that.

First and refunding bonds are issued in amounts large enough to provide for the redemption (final payment) of all first mortgage bonds outstanding; and when that is done the whole issue becomes one of first mortgage bonds.

bonds offered. But a name is of only slight importance to the buyer. He ought to know the value of the property behind the bonds, its past record of earnings, and its future prospects. Knowing these, he can tell whether or not the bond he buys is amply secured, and whether or not the interest as it will be paid regularly and promptly during its life.

Basic security, not a name, is what the wise bond buyer wants.

& CO., Atlanta
ic Accountants

HARDSON & CO.
C. ACCOUNTANTS
AMERICAN NAT'L BANK BUILDING
PENSACOLA, FLA.
Established 1893
& CLAY

322 Gravier St., New Orleans

100

Many Golfers Starring in the Big Tourney Have Played Here

AND YOU COULDN'T BLAME THE KEEPER

--BY FARREN

THE SPOTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

Up with your glasses to Tyrus Cobb—To Jackson the slugging foaming beaker—Crown them Kings of the Wallowing Job—And then again there's a bloke named Speaker.

We shudder to think of the shock that would befall Royston, Ga., and Greenville, S. C., if Hubbard City, Tex., should insist upon skidding gently in ahead of both as the home town of the Ruling Battling Orb.

But Hubbard has the best chance it has ever known. Last season Cobb led with 227 hits. Jackson was next with 226 and speaker was only four hits further down with 222. So far in this campaign Speaker has seemed up against Monday's start five more hits than Jackson and forty-four more than Cobb. He is still a few batting points shy due to a greater number of times at bat, but just now is hitting the ball harder than any other man in the game.

THE CLASSIC BORDER.

The blue-bordered border in batting isn't the 300 eye but the 200 hit mark; 200 batters are fairly common but last season there were only two to reach or pass 200 hits. They were Cobb, Jackson, Speaker and Baker from the American and Zimmerman from the National.

This season the 200 order will be pruned still further. Speaker needs but sixteen additional hits, starting with Monday's count. Jackson needs 11. The National hasn't any one with the chance as Dabbert leads and Jake the lodger needs thirty-seven more hits with only twenty games to play. Compiling thirty-seven hits in twenty battles can be done, but it's a highly colored undertaking at best.

Speaker is not close enough to catch in two days, just as he caught Jackson from Thursday to Saturday of last week, so in place of Georgia annexing South Carolina or South Carolina annexing Georgia, Texas say annex both and add considerably more territory to her already vengeful domain.

YOST AND DUBLIN.

Hurry-Up Yost, the Wolverine Coach, on his way from Europe to Ann Arbor, was telling us about his trip. He recounted incidents in a number of cities but we noticed that he seemed to have a warm spot in his heart for Dublin, Ireland.

We would discuss Paris briefly and then get back to Dublin. Mention London and then insert a Dublin anecdote. We had just about made up our mind that he was the most loyal Irishman we had ever known when he was in Dublin when I got my first copy of the 1913 football rules, mailed over by the committee. Which, as any one who knows Colonel Yost upon the verge of a football campaign will understand, was the answer to Dublin.

If Colonel Yost would get some one to talk football with in Florid, Norway, that place for him would be the garden spot of Europe.

Washington in 1906 beat Cleveland out of a pennant by taking the last eight out of two games. Like beat Cleveland out of another chance at the pennant in 1910 by taking the last eight straight, if not more. Was one city in the pinch spot can rise up and take sixteen out of sixteen from another city, the Indian sign can be noted as fairly rampant and in full bloom.

The Cardinals are first in fielding and last in batting. Another ruling proof that the batting eye is mightier than the mitt.

If the Browns finish last, the two St. Louis clubs should stage an episode down the world series for the benefit of the surfeited populace. What is knowing the name of the best club in the game the most interesting feature is knowing the name of the worst. As a forecast for such a series we predict a draw.

The Mackmen are not hitting the ball as lustily as in former years, but going back they have yet to meet a club forward.

America would feel a trifle safer over the Vardon-Ray invasion of Honolulu, Boston, if Walter Johnson was pegging the golf ball.

If one long drive was required to break a tie and A. Baker was named upon the tie.

CAPONI KNOCKED OUT BY JACK DILLON

WINSTON, Manitoba, Sept. 11.—Jack Caponi, Indianapolis middleweight, defeated Tony Caponi, Chicago, in the twenty-second round of their scheduled twenty-four round fight. After putting Tony down in the first round, Jack went to the door in the seventh round to get a drink. He returned to the ring in the eighth round and knocked Tony out in the tenth round.

Killed by Motor. PAULS, Wis., Sept. 18.—A motor car, driven by a man named John, killed a woman named Mary, who was walking across the street. The car was traveling at a high speed and did not stop in time.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

Arthur Robinson, the speedy Maroon horse sprinter, may enter Dartmouth college next year.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

WINONA. N. Y., Sept. 18.—Cornell football camp is in a gloom as a result of the large number of varsity men who are on the sick list and unable to get out for the scrimmage.

FOUR TIMES GOLF CHAMPION IS HONOR HELD BY TRAVERS

Jerome Travers, amateur golf champion, 1907-12, 1912-13. Travers defeated J. G. Anderson, of Boston, in the final round of the 1913 U. S. Open. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

"Law Brothers for Quality"

Experience and class told in the national amateur golf championship at Garden City, L. I., when Jerome, D. Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position.

Travers defeated J. G. Anderson, of Boston, in the final round of the 1913 U. S. Open. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

Travers won the national title for the fourth time, succeeding himself in the position. He was easily the class of a large field and was out of danger when the brilliant but unsteady Chicagoan, Charles Evans, Jr., blew up in the semi-final round.

OVERLOOK REAL WINNER OF THE ATLANTA FLAG

Appearing in the current issue of the Westminster Magazine is a most interesting article concerning the recent Southern league pennant race. It deals with the season from an angle never before touched upon by a sporting writer and is addressed to the sporting editors of Atlanta.

Here is the article in full as written in the form of an open letter by the author, Thorneycroft Jacobus.

"From among the thousands of fans who have enjoyed the excellence of your sporting pages during the past month I am writing to ask you a question. I have it in my mind to suggest to you that you have inadvertently done an injustice to one who might be called the father of our good baseball, and who is certainly as much interested in the progress and development of the sport locally as any person that you may be able to name. This year, particularly, he has done a service to all those who enjoy the game that has never been rendered by any one before and that makes the labors of others seem small in comparison. Knowing the spirit of fair play in which you have always treated those who take a honest, I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

"The millions of sport-lovers at back and watched the most spectacular pennant race ever staged in this country. They saw a team exhibit a faith and a courage fitting to be made the subject of editorial, oration and sermon. Came the famous double-header on Saturday preceding the last great week, when Mobile lost her two games and Atlanta won her two. In the days that followed they did the utterly impossible thing. Do you remember the excitement that followed the first two games with Mobile? And do you recall that horrible moment of disappointment when, in the moment of one-third of an inning, Connelman's thrilling game was told? That seemed a disappointment, did it not? Yet, in the light of after events, we know that it was his plan to carry the interest right on down to the very last game of the very last series, so that the whole world of sport-lovers might see him come as winners not a baseball club, but a collection of virtues."

"During all this time I have been looking for the name of the party in your column, and it has not been mentioned. I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

"The millions of sport-lovers at back and watched the most spectacular pennant race ever staged in this country. They saw a team exhibit a faith and a courage fitting to be made the subject of editorial, oration and sermon. Came the famous double-header on Saturday preceding the last great week, when Mobile lost her two games and Atlanta won her two. In the days that followed they did the utterly impossible thing. Do you remember the excitement that followed the first two games with Mobile? And do you recall that horrible moment of disappointment when, in the moment of one-third of an inning, Connelman's thrilling game was told? That seemed a disappointment, did it not? Yet, in the light of after events, we know that it was his plan to carry the interest right on down to the very last game of the very last series, so that the whole world of sport-lovers might see him come as winners not a baseball club, but a collection of virtues."

"During all this time I have been looking for the name of the party in your column, and it has not been mentioned. I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

"The millions of sport-lovers at back and watched the most spectacular pennant race ever staged in this country. They saw a team exhibit a faith and a courage fitting to be made the subject of editorial, oration and sermon. Came the famous double-header on Saturday preceding the last great week, when Mobile lost her two games and Atlanta won her two. In the days that followed they did the utterly impossible thing. Do you remember the excitement that followed the first two games with Mobile? And do you recall that horrible moment of disappointment when, in the moment of one-third of an inning, Connelman's thrilling game was told? That seemed a disappointment, did it not? Yet, in the light of after events, we know that it was his plan to carry the interest right on down to the very last game of the very last series, so that the whole world of sport-lovers might see him come as winners not a baseball club, but a collection of virtues."

"During all this time I have been looking for the name of the party in your column, and it has not been mentioned. I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

"The millions of sport-lovers at back and watched the most spectacular pennant race ever staged in this country. They saw a team exhibit a faith and a courage fitting to be made the subject of editorial, oration and sermon. Came the famous double-header on Saturday preceding the last great week, when Mobile lost her two games and Atlanta won her two. In the days that followed they did the utterly impossible thing. Do you remember the excitement that followed the first two games with Mobile? And do you recall that horrible moment of disappointment when, in the moment of one-third of an inning, Connelman's thrilling game was told? That seemed a disappointment, did it not? Yet, in the light of after events, we know that it was his plan to carry the interest right on down to the very last game of the very last series, so that the whole world of sport-lovers might see him come as winners not a baseball club, but a collection of virtues."

"During all this time I have been looking for the name of the party in your column, and it has not been mentioned. I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

"The millions of sport-lovers at back and watched the most spectacular pennant race ever staged in this country. They saw a team exhibit a faith and a courage fitting to be made the subject of editorial, oration and sermon. Came the famous double-header on Saturday preceding the last great week, when Mobile lost her two games and Atlanta won her two. In the days that followed they did the utterly impossible thing. Do you remember the excitement that followed the first two games with Mobile? And do you recall that horrible moment of disappointment when, in the moment of one-third of an inning, Connelman's thrilling game was told? That seemed a disappointment, did it not? Yet, in the light of after events, we know that it was his plan to carry the interest right on down to the very last game of the very last series, so that the whole world of sport-lovers might see him come as winners not a baseball club, but a collection of virtues."

"During all this time I have been looking for the name of the party in your column, and it has not been mentioned. I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

"The millions of sport-lovers at back and watched the most spectacular pennant race ever staged in this country. They saw a team exhibit a faith and a courage fitting to be made the subject of editorial, oration and sermon. Came the famous double-header on Saturday preceding the last great week, when Mobile lost her two games and Atlanta won her two. In the days that followed they did the utterly impossible thing. Do you remember the excitement that followed the first two games with Mobile? And do you recall that horrible moment of disappointment when, in the moment of one-third of an inning, Connelman's thrilling game was told? That seemed a disappointment, did it not? Yet, in the light of after events, we know that it was his plan to carry the interest right on down to the very last game of the very last series, so that the whole world of sport-lovers might see him come as winners not a baseball club, but a collection of virtues."

"During all this time I have been looking for the name of the party in your column, and it has not been mentioned. I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

"The millions of sport-lovers at back and watched the most spectacular pennant race ever staged in this country. They saw a team exhibit a faith and a courage fitting to be made the subject of editorial, oration and sermon. Came the famous double-header on Saturday preceding the last great week, when Mobile lost her two games and Atlanta won her two. In the days that followed they did the utterly impossible thing. Do you remember the excitement that followed the first two games with Mobile? And do you recall that horrible moment of disappointment when, in the moment of one-third of an inning, Connelman's thrilling game was told? That seemed a disappointment, did it not? Yet, in the light of after events, we know that it was his plan to carry the interest right on down to the very last game of the very last series, so that the whole world of sport-lovers might see him come as winners not a baseball club, but a collection of virtues."

"During all this time I have been looking for the name of the party in your column, and it has not been mentioned. I have often changed upon the leading part in sporting affairs. I believe that when the facts are called to your attention you will see that justice has not been done this friend of the game."

"Consider what has happened this year. It is universally admitted that there never has been such an interesting pennant race. All lovers of baseball have watched the progress of it, fascinated by its development. As we look back on it now we know that there has never been a single unimportant moment, so that every second of every game has been (had we but force seen how close the race was to be) a test full of interest and excitement that half dozen other men, connected with it, and as to the thrilling finish, with the facts of which all the fans are familiar, he was responsible almost alone for the whole thing and the ball of how perfectly he did it. After letting one of the clubs home for a triumph, he left one of them with a bare possibility of finishing first, practically saying to them if you will exhibit all the qualities that make up ideal manhood—courage, pluck, hope, faith, love, perseverance, humor, determination, temperance, good humor, and every other virtue—you may have the prize."

Welsh Claims Light Honors

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Sept. 18.—Freddie Welsh, British lightweight champion, proposes to shadow box himself into the world's championship here next Saturday afternoon, the day he was to have fought Willie Ritchie for the latter's title. Having disposed of his imaginary opponent, Welsh said today, he will demand Ritchie's forfeit. Ritchie, land an imaginary knockout, declare himself world's champion; visit his lawyers and make a claim for the $2,500 forfeit money.

This is the British boxer's announced program for Saturday.

Welsh in 215 p. m. at 185 pounds, hop through the ropes at the arena an hour later, shadow fight an imaginary Ritchie, land an imaginary knockout, declare himself world's champion; visit his lawyers and make a claim for the $2,500 forfeit money.

Ritchie's forfeit was posted as a check on which he stopped payment before he left for San Francisco.

O'Neil to America. LONDON, Sept. 18.—Upper O'Neil, the English soldier boxer, leaves for the United States, September 24, to meet Willie Ritchie in a contest for the lightweight championship.

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

O'Neil, I know you gentlemen to be some and fair, believers in the square deal, even for O'Neil, not frankly join that little band of men who never cease to praise him for his goodness and for his wonderful works to the children of man?"

Sussex
A striking smart shape which makes the first choice of a host of men who want a "classy" collar.

Ide Silver Collars
3 for 25c

don't spread apart at the top

Carlton Stee & Clothing Co.

Best Work
General 125c
Surgical 150c
Dental 175c
D. R. Day closed at 5:00
Filling all work guaranteed 30 days.

Eastern Painless Dentists
101, Nashville, N. Y., State, Maine.

LEGAL NOTICES
GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court, Sept. 18, 1913. No. 100.

GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court, Sept. 18, 1913. No. 100.

GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court, Sept. 18, 1913. No. 100.

GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court, Sept. 18, 1913. No. 100.

GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court, Sept. 18, 1913. No. 100.

GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court, Sept. 18, 1913. No. 100.

GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court, Sept. 18, 1913. No. 100.

GEORGIA, Fulton County—Mrs. Jennie M. Venable, Plaintiff, vs. J. M. Venable, Defendant. Return to the Court

Now, as continuously for the past 30 years, The Journal's circulation is quoted in exact figures, which are open to examination by any advertiser.

Net Circulation of

Net Circulation of

The Atlanta Journal

Jan. 1 to Sept. 1, 1913

Daily . . . $7.50
Sunday . . . 67.50

In arriving at these average figures the edition of the Journal was taken upon. The Sunday circulation, for instance, is included with the daily circulation.

I, John D. Simmons, manager of publication of The Atlanta Journal, certify that the foregoing statement of the circulation of the Atlanta Journal from January 1, 1913, to September 1, 1913, is true.

Signed and subscribed to before me day September, 1913.

 O. F. BENNETT, JR.
 Notary Public, Falmouth County, Me.
THE JOURNAL COVERS DIXIE LIKE THE DEW.
SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
 BY MAIL.
 To any address in the United States
 Island possessions and Mexico:
 Daily and Sunday One Year $
 Daily without Sunday One Year $
 Sunday only One Year $
 Semi-Weekly One Year $
 BY CARRIER.

Daily and Sunday	Per Week
Daily without Sunday	Per Month
Daily without Sunday	Per Month

SINGLE COPIES.

Daily	Per Week
Sunday	Per Month

MONEY TO LOAN

MONEY TO LEND on hand on insured real estate.
McGehee, Jr., 622-624 Empire bldg.

SIX PER CENT money on Atlanta p.
J. B. Nutting & Co., 801 Empire Life.

FARM LOANS—Placed in any amount on proved farm lands in Georgia. The Southern Mortgage Co., Gould bldg.

MORTGAGE LOANS made on first-class

ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS to loan for a home on Atlanta real estate; no delay. Apply to W. Vlasansky, attorney, 419-21 Atlanta National Bank building.

AARON HAAS SON & HOWELL
LOANS on real estate. We buy purchase notes. Quick service. 723-724 Cadillac Phone 174 4463.

MONEY FOR SALARIED PEOPLE
AND others upon their own names; cheap easy payments; confidential. Sec 8 Room 820 Austell bldg.

THE ATLANTA DISCOUNT COMPANY
Responsible Concern Making Loans
Without Real Estate Security.
817-818 Century bldg.

MONEY in bank to lend on Atlanta real estate in sums of $500, $1,000, $1,500 and $2,000 or more. We buy purchase money notes. Dunson & Gay, 400 Equitable bldg.

United States Mortgage & Trust Company of New York
W. B. SMITH, Sole Representative for the

$50,000 Home Funds
TO LOAN on Atlanta homes at 6 per cent.
Unlimited money for business properties.
lowest rate. See or write and will call.
Carson, 24 S. Broad street.

CITIZENS SAVINGS BANK & TRUST
601 Fourth National Bank Bldg.

MONEY—We can place a few good investments in well improved property in the city for 7 to 8 per cent. If you have any money to invest, call on us.

TURMAN, BLACK & CALHO
203 Empire Bldg.

MONEY TO LOAN
PLENTY of six and seven proved property, either for cash or monthly plan. Also for chase money notes. Foster & son, 11 Edgewood avenue.

On Furniture, Pianos, or endorsed Notes
WE ARE a new company, organized for the purpose of loaning money to anyone or keeping house at the lowest possible interest. We positively make no charge for commissions, drafting papers or any fee.

Our easy payment plan allows you to back to suit your income. We also protect from publicity, and extend every court make the carrying of a loan satisfactory in every way.

GUARANTEE LOAN

Phone 312-441-4444 National

WANTED—MONEY
WANTED—$1,500 on property worth $5,000.
years. E. E., Box 80, Journal.

WANTED—Loan of $2,500 on new sort bungalow, cherted street and all improvement. Would pay 8 per cent interest, but no excess. M., Box 90, care Journal.

6%—WE WILL PAY—6% ON SAVINGS

THE MERCHANT AND MECHANIC
INSURANCE AND LOAN CO.
230 Grant Building. Telephone 111
Cash Capital $120,000.
Thos. J. Weasley, Cashier
B. M. Grant, Pres.

PURCHASE MONEY FOT
 WILL BUY purchase money notes on property; first or second mortgage.
 E. L. 75, care Journal.

STOCKS AND BONDS

FOR SALE—5,000 shares Wisconsin Gold or $300, also 5,000 shares Brand Indenture or $250. Need money. Box 75, Little Arkansas.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEE THE MOVIES AT THE GRAND.
All day long. 5c.

TRAVEL
SEE THE MOVIES AT THE GRAND.
All day long. Se.

GEOGRAPHICAL
SEE THE MOVIES AT THE GRAND.

AMUSEMENTS
SEE THE MOVIE AT THE GRAND.
All day long, 5c.
FOR results use Journal W

DESIGNED TO PLACE BEFORE THE PUBLIC THE MERCHANDISE, CRAFTSMANSHIP AND SPECIAL SERVICE OFFERED BY THE EXCLUSIVE SHOPS AND SPECIALTY STORES NOT USUALLY ADVERTISED.

Abstract and Title Insurance.
TLANTA TITLE GUARANTEE CO., ground floor Equitable bldg. Bell phone Main 5429.

Artistic Upholstering.

Multigraphing, Addressing, Mailing.
THE LETTER CRAFT SHOP.
 BEST multigraphing work in the south. Prompt service. All work guaranteed. Business Service Co., P. O. Box 838, Atlanta. 877

New and Second Hand Elec. Machinery.
FOR new and second-hand electric machinery.

Oil-Gas Stoves—Steam Cookers
PORTABLE OIL-GAS STOVES, make gas from kerosene and burn air, or cook smoke or wood. Ideal Steam Cookers, cook all year dinner on one eye, any stove. H. K. Henry, 232 South Fifth st. Phone 3671 M. 267-J.

Pictures and Frames.

COLE BOOK AND ART CO.,
85 Whitehall, Main 492.

Pianos.
on consignment Adam-Scheaf pianos in North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia. W. F. Malone, southern representative, 623 Candida building.

Painting and Tinting.
Keep your house painted and tinted. Embrey Construction Company, 218 Fourth National Bank.

Packing and Storage.
SKINNER TRANSFER AND STORAGE CO.
34 N. Forsyth St.
Packing and shipping, household goods a specialty, by expert packers. Bell phone 174 4232.

Painting and Decorating.
J. E. OLIVER
11 SOUTH FORTSYTH. Mads 4627.

Printing.
THE JOHN S. COOK PRINTING CO.

Quality Printing. Reasonable Prices.
350 Edgewood. Rvy 3518-J.

Pressing and Altering.
FOR PRESSING, dyeing, altering, cleaning, see
T. N. WILBURN, 355 Marietta, Atlanta 2983.

Pressing and Cleaning CHERRY'S PRESSING CLUB, cleaning and pressing, Atlanta 8218, 509 Marietta street.

Pope Hartford Autos For Rent.
PRIOR MOTOR CO.
HIGH CLASS cars, reasonable rates. Phone
M. 4599, Main 216.

Rubber Stamp and Seal.
RUBBER STAMP seals, stencils, etc.; 15 years experience. Harwell Rubber Stamp Co., 8, Broad st.

Roofs.
OF ALL kinds repaired. Felt and gravel put on. Roof paint for sale. J. N. Little, 18
Whitetail, Main 614.

Replastered and Repaired.
J. G. THOWER replastered all the ceilings new Walker St. school. All work guaranteed.
Phone six your troubles. Ivy 2281-L. M. 376

Roofing.

JONES ROOFING CO. Atlanta 1411
Repairs and new roofing. Atl. 655

Secondhand Tents.
1,000 ARMY tents, 18 cu. ft. S. duck, slight used. We have all sizes. (Call or write Springer, 25 South Pryor st., or Ball M. 132)

Stove and Range Repairing.
ATLANTA STOVE SUPPLY CO.—We also mail chimney sweeps. Ivy 7240. 101 N. Forsyth street.

Shoes Repairing.
WANTED.—1,000 pairs old shoes for repairs
Murphy's and Stand, 847 Marietta street
Atlanta 57-49-P.

SHOES HALF-SOLED, SEWED.
50 CENTS
At Gwin's Shoe Shop, 36 Luckie St.
Opposite Piedmont Hotel. Both Phones.
In a hurry, call Maciab Co. for an auto re service. Both phones.

Safe and Vaults.
SALES

BANKERS SAFE & VAULT CO.
35 East Mitchell St., Main 264
Best Safe and Lock Expert in the South.

Shoes.
MEN'S AND LADIES' New High Shoes, at 25c

Boys' School Shoes, $1.95; Children's School Shoes, $1.65. Stewart's Under-price basement 25 Whitehall street.

Stoves and Ranges.
STOVES AND RANGES REPAIRED.
DAN, THE FIXER
121 Whitehall. M. 269

Tailored Suits and Costumes.
TAILORED suits made to order and suits tered. W. H. Johnson Co., 123 White-street. Theatrical costumes and dress making specialty. Call Main 2088.

Transfer Service.
STALLINGS Transfer Co., 11½ Fair-
St. Main 5261.

Tin and Sheet Iron Work.
BEST WORK, prices reasonable. J. L. McNair, 209 Marietta street, Main 5276-J. At. 2127.

Transfer and Storage.

MELL & CLOSE
TRANSFER, storage, packing. Main 154-Atlanta 3910.

Trunks and Suit Cases.
MANUFACTURERS, Retailers and Repairers all kinds luggage. Roomtree's, 77 Whitehall & Phone Main 1578. Atlanta 1854.

Umbrellas and Parasols (Mfg.)
HARRY BRIGGS, 5 Vinland Place, Main 510
Fin. handles, repairing & recovering a specialty.

Umbrellas, Wholesale and Retail.
UMBRELLAS Try "Taylor Made
All prices. No charge for repairs. Phone 8
2748. Taylor Umbrella Co., 110½ Whitehall Upholstering
CAPITAL UPHOLSTERING

Violin Maker.
I WANT to buy an old violin. Sam Kimbrell violin maker, expert repairing. Stone Mountain, Ga. Telephone connections.

Watches and Jewelry.
WATCHES DIAMONDS, Jewelry, eyeglasses and spectacles on divided payments to reliable parties.
BANTA-COLE-JEWELRY CO.
5 South Broad St.

Windows and House Cleaning.
NATIONAL WINDOW CLEANING CO.

47 E. Hester street, Main 1175. Ad. 1031

Wall Paper and Decorations.
FRIDDELL BROS., 107 N. Pryor st., opp. Camlar bldg. House painting a specialty. Try 42

Wall Paper and Paint.
SEE J. M. QUICK at Rockwood. Improve-

Wanted Feathers
WANTED to buy several feather beds and pillows. Atlanta Phone 473.

WALK in the path of promotion with a Want Ad passport.

CRIGHTON-SHUMAKER
est. Established 1885
Business College

THE LEADING
Business Training School in the South.
INDIVIDUAL INSTRUCTION
BY THE PROPRIETORS IN PERSON.
CATALOGUE FREE
KISER BUILDING ATLANTA

1. Phragmites australis (Cav.) Trin. ex Steud.

